April 27, 2025 – 2nd Sunday of Easter

Jesus gives us a new beatitude: – Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe. Today’s gospel, made us realize that faith is about believing without seeing. Certainly it is not easy; one needs the grace of God. When we believe, the grace of faith leads us to happiness. Faith in Jesus Christ assures us that God is with us; and if we believe that God is with us, neither suffering, nor sickness, nor death cannot overwhelm us. We must take time and let faith grow within us. This can be in prayer, stillness and meditation of writing, in which the spirit reveals its will to us and shows its tender and paternal love. In the busy world, this may be difficult, but no day is diminished by time we spend in silence and in quiet, knowing we are richly blessed when we grow our faith in God.

Nel vangelo di oggi, Gesù ci dà una nuova beatitudine: “ Beati quelli che non hanno visto e credono” Puoi disfare questa piccola frase e in essa ti accorgi che la fede consiste nel credere senza vedere. Certamente non è facile; uno ha bisogno della grazia di Dio. Quando crediamo, la grazia della fede ci porta alla felicità. La fede in Gesù Cristo ci assicura che Dio è con noi; e se crediamo che Dio è con noi, né la sofferenza, né la malattia, né la morte non possono sopraffarci. Dobbiamo prendere tempo e lasciare che la fede cresca dentro di noi. Questo può essere nella preghiera, nella quiete e nella meditazione della scrittura, in cui lo spirito ci svela la sua volontà e ci manifesta il suo amore tenero e paterno.

We must fan the flame of hope that has been given to us. – Pope Francis

On the lighter side.....

THE STORY is told about a priest who, talking about heaven in his homily, said: “We bring nothing with us when we die. There is no money in heaven! People in heaven have no money!” The whole congregation was quiet, until a little girl whispered to her mother loud enough for all to hear: “Mama, mama, we’re in heaven already!”
