During her sermon on Jesus's teaching that we should love our enemies, the pastor asked the congregation to raise their hands if they had enemies. Everyone did so except for a Senior citizen in the front row, who had just turned 95.

The pastor asked, "how could you possibly live for 95 years and have no enemies?"

"That's easy," the senior citizen replied, "I just outlived them!"

~
O Immaculate Virgin, Mother of God and Mother of humanity, we believe with all the fervor of our faith in your triumphal Assumption, both body and soul, into heaven, where you are acclaimed as Queen by all the choirs of angels and all the legions of the saints. And we unite with them to praise and bless the Lord who has exalted you above all other pure creatures, and to offer you the tribute of our devotion and our love. -Pope Pius XII

19th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

La paura e la mancanza di coraggio rappresentano un notevole ostacolo ad una vita di fede e d'amore.

Anche noi, proprio come gli apostoli sulla barca, possiamo lasciarci paralizzare dalla paura, che ci impedisce di vedere quanto Cristo ci sia vicino. Come san Pietro, dobbiamo essere pronti a rischiare la nostra sicurezza e l'eccessiva preoccupazione per noi stessi, se vogliamo che la nostra fede si rafforzi. Cristo dice ad ognuno di noi: "Vieni". Per rispondere e per andare a lui, a volte, dobbiamo attraversare le acque della sofferenza.

Che cosa succede, allora, quando, sentendo la forza del vento, cominciamo ad avere paura e ad affondare? Per superare la paura si deve seguire l'esempio di Gesù: "Sali sul monte, solo, a pregare". La fede si rafforza solo con una pratica regolare della preghiera.

Fear and lack of courage are a major obstacle to a life of faith and love. We too, just like the apostles on the boat, can let ourselves be paralyzed by fear, which prevents us from seeing how close Christ is to us.

Like St. Peter, we must be prepared to risk our security and excessive self-concern if we are to strengthen our faith. Christ says to each of us: "Come". To answer and to go to him, sometimes we have to cross the waters of suffering.
