November 15 – 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Nel Vangelo di oggi, Gesù ci dice che coloro che possiedono un solo talento sono utili e importanti quanto coloro che ne hanno molti, nel compiere l'opera di Dio. Le api ce ne offrono un buon esempio: alcune raccolgono il miele, altre sorvegliano l'alveare, altre ancora lo mantengono pulito; eppure, tutte si nutrono dello stesso miele. Anche noi, forti o deboli che siamo, lavoriamo insieme in Cristo. I servi fedeli fanno tutto ciò che sanno poter essere gradito a Dio, il quale colma ogni loro vuoto. Attraverso le mansioni quotidiane, essi rivelano il proprio potenziale divino, orientato all'unione con Dio, e riconoscono che Egli regna nel cuore delle loro attività di ogni giorno.

Beati coloro che impiegano i propri talenti per far sì che l'amore di Dio si stabilisca in mezzo a noi. Dio non permetterà mai che il loro impegno resti infruttuoso! Anche se dovessero compiere solo un piccolo gesto per Lui, Dio li colmerà di abbondanti benedizioni, in questa vita e in quella futura.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that those with one talent are just as useful and important as those with many talents in doing God's work. The bees give us a good example. Some gather honey, some watch over the hive and others keep it clean. But they all eat the same honey.

We too, the strong and the weak, work together in Christ. Faithful servants do all they know to be pleasing to God, who fills their emptiness. They reveal their divine potential for union with God through their everyday tasks. They recognize that God reigns in the midst of their daily activities.

Happy are they who use their talents to establish God's love in their midst. God will never let them be unfruitful! Even if they do only a little for God, God will shower abundant blessings on them in this life and in the next.
