The Shepherds' Trust
Caring for those who always cared for us

The Shepherds' Trust supports the needs of our retired clergy who have served our family of faith, enriching our lives in our own homes, schools, churches, hospitals and other areas of ministry.
Through your support of the Shepherds' Trust, our retired priests like Fr. Eugene & Fr. Paolos are given the dignity of adequate monthly allowance, health care and other assistance in their golden years.

I Pastori 'Trust supporta le esigenze dei nostri sacerdoti in pensione, che hanno servito la nostra famiglia di fede, arricchendo la nostra vita nelle nostre case, scuole, chiese, ospedali e altre aree di ministero.
Attraverso il vostro sostegno dei pastori 'Trust, i nostri sacerdoti anziani hanno la dignità di un adeguato assegno mensile, l'assistenza sanitaria e altri tipi di assistenza nei loro anni d'oro.
Envelopes are available in the entrances and exits of the church

On the lighter side……..

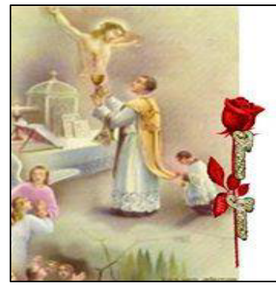

A Sunday School teacher said to her children, "We have been learning about how powerful the kings and queens were in Biblical times.
But there is a higher power. Who can tell me what it is?"
Tommy blurted out, "I know, Aces."

November 7 – 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Vale la pena riflettere, per un momento, sul fatto che un giorno sarà il mio ultimo. Se quel giorno fosse oggi, quanto sarei preparato? La lampada è simbolo della fede che illumina la nostra vita, mentre l'olio rappresenta la carità che alimenta la luce della fede, rendendola feconda e credibile. Essere pronti a incontrare il Signore richiede qualcosa di più della semplice fede; esige una vita cristiana ricca di amore e di carità verso il prossimo.

In today's parable, Jesus reminds us that we must be prepared for our encounter with Him. We must be wise and prudent: this means not waiting until the very last minute of our lives to cooperate with God's grace, but doing so here and now. It is worth considering, for a moment, that one day will be my last. If that day were today, how prepared would I be? The lamp is a symbol of the faith that illuminates our lives, while the oil represents the charity that fuels the light of faith, making it fruitful and credible. Being prepared to meet the Lord requires
