Felice Giorno del Ringraziamento!!

Ti lodo o Signore per l'amore che sempre mi doni, Ti lodo o Altissimo perché ogni giorno mi sostieni, Ti lodo Onnipotente perché ami questa tua creatura, Ti lodo Santissimo perché sei misericordioso Ti ringrazio per avermi donato l'esistenza, Per avermi immerso tra le altre creature,
Per l'affetto dei miei cari che mi hai messo accanto, Per il dono giornaliero delle cose necessarie.
Ti lodo perché mi hai fatto meravigliosamente,
Per i sensi corporali che continuamente esercito,
Ti lodo per il respiro che ritempra il mio corpo, Per ogni battito del cuore che tu mi concedi.
Riconosco, o Signore, la tua grande magnificenza, Il sublime mistero della tua Incarnazione Che ti ha reso solidale con noi peccatori Per portarci alle vette della tua divinità.
Ti lodo, o Signore, per il tuo fecondo Spirito che è sempre pronto e sollecito con noi.
Ti lodo, o Signore, perché mai ci abbandoni anche quando noi abbandoniamo Te.

St. Wilfrid Feast Day

Solemn Mass: October 12, 8 am & 7 pm

St. Wilfrid^{la} (c. 633 – c. 709) was an English bishop and saint. Born in a Northumbrian noble, he entered religious life as a teenager and studied at Lindisfarne, at Canterbury, in Gaul, and at Rome; Born in Northumberland in 634, St. Wilfrid was an outstanding personage of his day, extremely capable and possessed of unbounded courage, remaining firm in his convictions despite running afoul of civil and ecclesiastical authorities. He helped bring the discipline of the English Church into line with that of Rome. He was also a dedicated pastor and a zealous and skilled missionary.

PRAYER TO ST. WILFRID

O Almighty God, who by your holy servant Saint Wilfrid, didst reveal to the English people the mystery of the Holy Faith: mercifully grant that we who commemorate his holy life and conversation may be aided by his prayers, and at last attain to the vision of your heavenly glory; through the merits of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

October 11, 2026 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dio ci promette, attraverso la parola del profeta Isaia (I Lettura), di preparare per tutti i popoli un banchetto di grasse vivande, di vini eccellenti, di cibi succulenti. Dovremmo tutti nutrire un'attesa spasmodica per la realizzazione di una promessa così consolante. Eppure, accade che, quando finalmente il giorno giunge e la promessa si compie, non sappiamo accogliere prontamente l'invito alle nozze. Le nostre preoccupazioni e i nostri affari ci distraggono, ciò che noi pensiamo di dover realizzare con il nostro impegno diventa più importante e necessario di ciò che Dio fa per noi. «Tutto è pronto», ci annuncia Gesù narrando una parabola, siamo noi a non essere pronti ad accogliere il suo invito. Dio non si arrende e finalmente la sua festa si riempie di commensali, «cattivi e buoni», precisa la parabola. C'è tuttavia qualcuno che si presenta senza l'abito nuziale. Non è un simbolo di una indegna condotta morale, dato che cattivi e buoni sono invitati alla festa, ma è forse il segno della nostra pretesa di cucirci questo abito da soli, con le nostre mani, anziché accoglierlo dalla grazia di Dio, poiché tutto noi possiamo - scrive Paolo (II Lettura) - ma solo in colui che ci dà la forza!

This week's readings reminds us that God invites everyone to share in His joy. It speaks of abundance, welcome, and being ready to take part in what God offers. Like a great feast, His love is open to all, but we must come prepared to receive it. Isaiah tells of a feast on a mountain where sorrow and death are gone. God gathers all nations and wipes away tears. It is a picture of hope and comfort. This connects with the Gospel, where Jesus speaks of a wedding banquet that welcomes anyone willing to come. Paul, in the second reading, teaches that strength and peace come from trusting Christ in every situation. Whether we have plenty or little, God provides what we need. He calls each of us to accept His invitation and live with thankful hearts.

THANK YOU FOR HELPING OUR COMMUNITY!

At the initiative of Pope Pius XI in 1926, next week, the second last Sunday during October became known as World Mission Sunday.

Catholics throughout the world are invited to pray for and give to the missions. The Pontifical Missions Society organizes the collection. The funds collected assist some 1250 mission dioceses under the responsibility of the Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples. As agreed by the Holy See and the Bishops of Canada, a portion of the Canadian contributions to this collection will continue to be used until 2021 to assist six dioceses in Northern Canada, which for many years had also been under the jurisdiction of the Congregation. We are encouraged as the people of God to spiritually and materially assist in the Church's mission work.

Next weekend, October 17 & 18 we will have a second collection. Thank you for your generosity

MASS ATTENDANCE COUNT 2026
