Welcome, new parishioners!

We invite new parishioners to register with the parish. Registration forms and donation envelopes are available in the entrance of the church and at the parish office.

Oggi è la Giornata Missionaria Mondiale, la giornata istituita dalla Chiesa cattolica in tutto il mondo per rinnovare pubblicamente il suo impegno nella missione universale, la sua chiamata a portare la Buona Novella di Cristo fino ai confini della terra. La missione di Cristo che la Chiesa è incaricata e autorizzata a portare avanti è quella di promuovere il regno di Dio “sulla terra come in cielo”. Questo è il cuore di ciò che intendono le parole del vangelo di oggi: «restituire a Dio ciò che è di Dio» (Mt 22,21), perché tutto appartiene a Dio e a Lui deve essere restituito. A differenza del regno di Cesare, basato su un potere e un controllo imposti senza scrupoli, che rappresentava una brutta notizia soprattutto per i poveri, il regno di Dio è una buona notizia. È un regno di amore e libertà, di verità e giustizia. Inoltre, a differenza del regno di Cesare e di tutti i regni terreni, durerà per sempre. Così come vissuto e proclamato da Gesù, il regno di Dio significava buona notizia per i poveri, guarigione per i malati e liberazione per gli schiavi e gli oppressi.

Today, is a World Mission Sunday, is the day set aside by the Catholic Church throughout the world to publicly renew its commitment to its universal mission, its calling to bring the Good news of Christ to the ends of the earth. The mission of Christ that the Church is charged and empowered to continue is to promote God's reign 'on earth as in heaven'. This is the heart of what is meant by the words of today's gospel, 'to give back to God what belongs to God (Mt 22:21), for everything belongs to God, and must be returned to him. Unlike the reign of Caesar, based on ruthlessly enforced power and control, which was bad news especially for the poor, God's reign is good news. It is a reign of love and freedom, of truth and justice. Moreover, unlike the reign of Caesar, and all earthly kingdoms, it will endure forever. As lived and proclaimed by Jesus, God's reign meant good news for the poor, healing for the sick, and liberation for the enslaved and oppressed.

SIMON & JUDE
PRAY FOR US.

Saints Simon and Jude were two of the Apostles. In the Gospel of Luke, Simon is called “the Zealot,” meaning he may have belonged to a radical anti-Roman group. Jude, the son of James, spoke with Jesus at the Last Supper. According to Passion of Simon and Jude, an apocryphal text, the two saints preached and were martyred together in Persia. These Apostles remind us to execute the will of God with a sense of inquiry and passion.

PRAYER FOR A SICK PERSON

Almighty and Eternal God,
You are the everlasting health of those who believe in You. Hear us for Your sick servant,(NAME OF THE SICK PERSON), for whom we implore the aid of Your tender mercy, that being restored to bodily health, he (she) may give thanks to You in Your Church. Through Christ our Lord.

Signore,
Ti prego per tutti
gli ammalati.

Per l'immenso
Amore che porti
ai sofferenti,
agli afflitti,
a tutti i bisognosi,
Ascoltali, Benedicili, Soccorrili, Consolali
e Guariscili.
Amen!

On the lighter side....

A Sunday school teacher asked the children just before she dismissed them to go to church, "And why is it necessary to be quiet in church?"
Annie replied, "Because people are sleeping".
