Join us for the Rosary Rally
Saturday October 11, 2025 at Noon
In front of the Madonna facing Finch Road

Let’s fill the front lawn of our beautiful Church in front of the Madonna with prayer as we unite to pray Canada back to God. Now more than ever, our nation needs the powerful intercession of Our Lady. “Through the Canada Needs Our Lady crusade”, we join thousands across the country in asking Mary to guide us back to Christ.

Dress for the weather and bring your Rosary. Together, let’s place Canada in Our Ladv’s care.

On this weekend of October 4/5, we will have the opportunity to participate in our annual collection to support the Indigenous Healing & Reconciliation Fund.

To date, the Archdiocese of Toronto has allocated $3.1 million to projects that are supporting culture and language revitalization, education, community building and support for Indigenous families who have been affected by suicide, violence or abuse.

On a lighter side.....

A teacher was giving a lesson on the Old Testament and asked one of her students, “Tommy, who knocked down the walls of Jericho?” Tommy answered, “Well, it wasn’t me.”

Worried about this lack of Bible knowledge, the teacher called Tommy’s mother. His mother said, “Look, my son’s a good kid. If he says he didn’t knock the wall down, he didn’t knock the wall down.”

More worried, the teacher called Tommy’s father. He listened to her story and said, “Well, look, I don’t want any trouble. Just tell me how much this wall costs, and I’ll take care of it.”

October 5, 2025 –27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

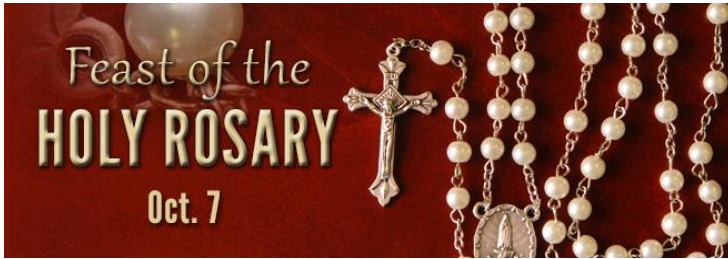

Today’s Gospel talks about faith and duty. Jesus says that even a small amount of faith can do great things. He also reminds us that serving God is not about seeking praise. A servant does what is expected. In the same way, Christians should serve God with humility, knowing that they are only doing what they should.

The lesson about having a servant’s heart connects with this message. Serving God is not about getting rewards or recognition. It is about being faithful and doing what is right. True service comes from love and commitment, not from a desire for praise. Just like Jesus says in the Gospel, a servant does not expect thanks. Instead, they serve because it is their role. This helps us remember that faith and service go together.

Il profeta Abacuc svolge la sua missione circa settecento anni prima di Cristo. Il suo messaggio interpella anche noi, impotenti davanti alla violenza ae all'ingiustizia, e colpiti dal "silenzio" di dio. E un messaggio di speranza che ci da conforto: chi opera il male fallirà, ma che compie il bene ('il giusto") si affida a dio e ottiene la salvezza: "il giusto vivrà per la sua fede" La crisi di fede del nostro tempo, originata dall'indifferenza e dall'abbandono della practica religiosa, spinge tutti noi a rivolgere al Signore la richiesta degli apostoli: "Accresci in noi la fede" Ma anche a fare nostri nostri i richiami dell'apostolo Paolo: "Ravviva il dono di dio". " Non vergognanti di dare testimonianzaal Signore nostro". " Soffri con me per il Vangelo".

La fede si esprime nella nostra vita, nel nostro lavoro, nel metterci a servizio della famiglia e della comunità. Viviamo e serviamo con l'imilita e la disponibilità del servo descritto nel Vangelo, senza nulla pretendere: " Siamo servi inutili. Abbiamo fatto quanto dovevamo fare". Questa gratuità è la cjiave che apre l'ingresso nel regno di Dio.
